AFRICAN MONARCH
LODGES

Wowed by wilderness

For those seeking slumber beneath the stars, our four secluded and exclusive campsites take you even deeper into the outdoors. A unique blend of expansive wild and eclectic decor – think one-of-a-kind mosaic pieces and chandeliers – creates a never-before-seen wonderland.

Situated behind the Kwando River lagoon under the majestic Jackleberry, Strangler Fig, Leadwood and Knobthorn trees, deep inside Bwabwata National Park.

Each site has an expansive view of the vast floodplains beyond, with an abundance of animals roaming these plains. Skillfully crafted by the impactful Sijwa Project, the structures have been built or enhanced using accents of recycled materials.

Deep into the outdoors

As the campsite is in the heart of KAZA, the world's largest wildlife conservation area, local and migrant wildlife wander through the campsite, making it true wild camping.

Two of the four campsites are more secluded and closer to the floodplains. Campsites 3 and 4 would be perfect for larger families or groups travelling together.

- Large camping areas with ample shade.
- Kitchen with double wash basins, hot water, and lapa offering extra shade or serving as a rain cover during our wetter months.
- Bathroom with double basin, vanity, shower, toilet, hot water fuelled by a donkey boiler using 70% recycled carton fire bricks made by the Sijwa Project.
- Individual solar powered lights, plug point for a car fridge and 2 USB charge points.
- Fire pit with concrete benches surrounded with soft white sand for sinking feet into as you gather around the fire. Ample space to add camping chairs around the fire.

"If you're nervous about hippos and elephants coming through the camp, you might want to sleep in a rooftop tent on your vehicle."

The Sijwa Project

The Sijwa Project was launched in 2018 with a vision of empowering the community. The project re-purposes and re-invents all recyclable waste from African Monarch Lodges and the local community, turning it into exquisite arts and crafts. It's also an organic permaculture nursery supplying food for lodge guests and locals alike.
